Dear Pupils of St Adrian's,

I am very excited to introduce myself. My name is Mrs Porter and as many of you may know, I am going to be the new Headteacher at St Adrian's after Christmas.

I have heard so much about you and what fantastic children you all are. I was very lucky to do an assembly with some of you when I visited for my interview day. Those children are now in Year 3 and Year 6, I believe - I wonder if you remember my assembly about the mustard seed?

I could tell from the moment that I walked into your school, that it was a very happy school. When I visited the Early Years, you were all very excited to show me the amazing potions you had been making. You were all very friendly and welcomed me with great big smiles into your school.

When I begin working at your school in January, I am looking forward to hearing about all the wonderful talents that you have. Being Irish, I love singing and I used to do Irish dancing.....a VERY LONG time ago! I bet you that we have a school full of authors, mathematicians, scientists, musicians, dancers, artists, sporting fanatics and many more.

Mr Bedford has talked so much about what great children you are and I can't wait to get to know you better.

I am very lucky to have been invited to the Mercy Mass this Friday, so I will get to meet you all then.

See you soon!

Many thanks,

Mrs Porter
